

THE EFFECT of what was Spoken

A Table, shewing the exact Value of the several sorts of Cane-Chairs, with the prime Cost and Value of the Wood and Cane with which they are made, and the remaining Sum which Maintain 3000 Persons.

THE lowest priz'd Cane-Chairs (whereof about Two Thousand Dozen is yearly made) sold at Five Shillings the Chair.

The middle priz'd Cane-Chairs (whereof about Two Thousand Dozen is yearly made) sold at Twelve Shillings the Chair.

The Highest prized Cane-Chairs and Chouches (whereof about Two Thousand Dozen is yearly made) sold at Twenty Five Shillings the Chair.

2000 Dozen at 3 l. the Dozen, comes to	6000
2000 Dozen at 7 l.--4 s. the Dozen, comes to	14400
2009 Dozen at 15 l. the Dozen, comes to	30000
	<hr/>
	50400

The Prime cost of the Wood and Cane in the First Two Thousand Dozen, at Twelve Pence a Chair, comes to	{	1200
--	---	------

The Wood and Cane of the Second Two Thousand Dozen, at Twelve Pence the Chair, comes to	{	1200
---	---	------

The Wood and Cane in the last Two Thousand Dozen of Chairs and Couches, at Two Shillings and Six Pence each Chair, or Couch, comes to	{	3000
	<hr/>	5400

The Value of the Chairs	50400
The Value of the Wood and Cane	5400
Remains for Workmanship	45000
Which Maintains	3000 Persons.

Mr. I also assure you, I will make it my particular care to provide and secure the Arch of England, as by Law establish'd. I shall desire you will in my absence, take care that all things be kept in good peace and good order; and at my return, I hope in God, all things will be well settled; that we may be happy, and enjoy one another, and every man his Right.

F I N I S.

LONDON, Printed for Randal Taylor near Stationers-Hall. 1689.